

ADVISORDIRECT
DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
DOCUMENT

OVERVIEW OF ADVISORDIRECT

AdvisorDirect® is a national referral service for TD AMERITRADE, Inc. (“TD AMERITRADE”) (member FINRA/SIPC) retail clients, prospective clients and other investors who wish to engage the services of an independent investment advisory firm. TD AMERITRADE is a wholly owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation.

AdvisorDirect refers interested TD AMERITRADE retail clients, prospective clients and other investors to one or more independent investment advisory firms that are unaffiliated with TD AMERITRADE and that offer investment management and/or financial planning services (collectively, “investment advisory services”) to investors served by TD AMERITRADE’s branch offices (“Branch Office”). A Branch Office will refer one or more Advisors to a client who is interested in pursuing investment advisory services. AdvisorDirect is available to individuals, institutions, pension and profit-sharing plans, trusts, estates, charitable organizations, corporations and other entities other than government entities.

All the investment advisors in AdvisorDirect (“Advisors”) have been carefully screened and have been found to meet or exceed TD AMERITRADE’s professional eligibility requirements to participate in AdvisorDirect. The Advisors work independently and are not employees of, nor affiliated with, TD AMERITRADE.

If you would like to participate in AdvisorDirect, your Branch Office will assist you in finding an Advisor whose investment style or financial planning services match the client information you provide. TD AMERITRADE will not refer you to an Advisor whose minimum account balance requirement exceeds your investment amount, nor will TD AMERITRADE determine whether professional investment management services or financial planning services are suitable for you. It is your sole responsibility to choose an appropriate Advisor that meets your investment needs and to monitor the Advisor’s performance to make sure that your investment needs are being met.

TD AMERITRADE will provide you with pertinent information about any Advisor it refers to you. Once you have reviewed that information, TD AMERITRADE recommends that you interview the Advisors to discuss their qualifications and the services they offer to determine which Advisor matches your investment needs. There is no cost or obligation for an introductory interview with any Advisor.

If you determine that an Advisor does not meet your investment needs, and you would like to pursue the services of another participating Advisor, we may provide you with names and related information for one or more additional Advisors.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IS CONTAINED THROUGHOUT THIS DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY IN ITS ENTIRETY AND BE CERTAIN TO ASK A TD AMERITRADE INVESTMENT CONSULTANT IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS. YOU MAY NOT HIRE ANY ADVISOR REFERRED TO YOU THROUGH ADVISORDIRECT UNTIL YOU SIGN A FORM THAT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.

CRITERIA FOR ADVISOR PARTICIPATION IN ADVISORDIRECTMinimum Eligibility Requirements

To participate in AdvisorDirect, an Advisor must meet the minimum eligibility criteria described below, as well as any additional criteria that TD AMERITRADE may, from time to time, apply. TD AMERITRADE may, without notice, change the eligibility criteria for Advisors participating in AdvisorDirect at any time. In addition, TD AMERITRADE may modify or waive criteria for Advisors on a case-by-case basis. TD AMERITRADE does not monitor an Advisor’s performance nor is an Advisor’s past performance considered for selection for AdvisorDirect.

Participating Advisors generally must meet the following criteria:

1. Fee-Based Compensation. Each Advisor is compensated on a fee basis (“advisory fee”) for the investment advisory services provided to clients it receives through AdvisorDirect. The advisory fee may be calculated by a percentage of your assets under management, a fixed fee or billed on an hourly rate for financial planning and/or investment management services. For investment management services, an Advisor may also charge fees based on a share of a referred client’s capital appreciation if permitted under applicable federal and state laws and rules and regulations.
2. Education and Investment Experience. All aspects of the investment management and/or financial planning services the Advisor provides to you will be rendered by and/or supervised and reviewed by representatives of the Advisor who have at least one of the following:
 - a minimum of 10 years of experience managing money and investments as a primary occupation, which may include work as a registered representative, portfolio manager or financial planner; or
 - a bachelor’s degree from an accredited four-year institution and a minimum of five years of experience managing money and investments as a primary occupation, which may include work as a registered representative, portfolio manager or financial planner; or
 - a minimum of five years of experience managing money and investments as a primary occupation, which experience may include work as a registered representative, portfolio manager or financial planner, and one or more of the following designations: CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst), CFP (Certified Financial Planner), CPA-PFS (Personal Financial Specialist), CIC (Chartered Investment Counselor) or CIMA (Certified Investment Management Analyst).
3. Assets Under Management. An Advisor generally must have at least $25 million in assets under management.
4. Licensing and Registration. Each Advisor must be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment advisor or is a financial institution not required to register with the SEC and is registered with a state regulatory authority, if applicable, and/or is subject to oversight by a state regulatory authority. All persons who are employed by, or associated with, an Advisor must comply with applicable federal and state registration, filing, notification, licensing, fee and qualification requirements. TD AMERITRADE makes no representation about any Advisor’s compliance with, or exclusion or exemption from, any state’s or other jurisdiction’s investment advisor requirements. Once an Advisor is admitted to participate in AdvisorDirect, TD AMERITRADE does not monitor an Advisor’s continued registration with the SEC or state regulatory authorities.

Other Considerations for Selection for AdvisorDirect

AdvisorDirect is not open to all investment advisors who meet the minimum eligibility requirements. TD AMERITRADE limits the number of investment advisors selected to participate in AdvisorDirect based on the services provided by, and investment style of, the Advisor. Each investment advisor considered for AdvisorDirect is a client of TD AMERITRADE Institutional (formerly, TD Waterhouse Institutional Services). If an investment advisor otherwise meets TD AMERITRADE’s eligibility criteria for AdvisorDirect, TD AMERITRADE may take into consideration the investment advisor’s business relationship with TD AMERITRADE in selecting an investment advisor to participate in AdvisorDirect. TD AMERITRADE Institutional provides custody, trading, technology, research, administrative and other support and services to independent investment advisors whose clients' assets are held in custody with TD AMERITRADE. An investment advisor that otherwise meets the minimum eligibility criteria may be selected for AdvisorDirect based on the amount and profitability to TD AMERITRADE of the assets in, and trades placed for, the investment advisor's clients' accounts maintained at TD AMERITRADE. In addition, TD AMERITRADE may require an investment advisor to maintain a minimum amount of assets at TD AMERITRADE to be considered for participation in AdvisorDirect.

TD AMERITRADE will most likely recommend Advisors to you that are successful in entering into investment advisory agreements with referred clients, as Advisors who successfully enter into an investment advisory agreement with a referred client pay TD AMERITRADE fees. Furthermore, because TD AMERITRADE makes profits by maintaining your assets and executing your trades, it will most likely recommend Advisors to you that tend to encourage their clients to custody their assets at TD AMERITRADE. Consequently, to obtain additional client referrals from TD AMERITRADE, your Advisor may have an incentive to recommend to you that you custody your assets under management with your Advisor with TD AMERITRADE. Your Advisor also has agreed not to solicit you to transfer your brokerage account from TD AMERITRADE or establish brokerage or custody accounts at other custodians other than when its fiduciary duties to you would require it to recommend other broker/dealers or custodians.

THE REFERRAL PROCESS

Amount of Investable Assets

TD AMERITRADE will generally not allow you to participate in AdvisorDirect unless you have a minimum amount of investable assets. Currently, that amount is $200,000. However, TD AMERITRADE reserves the right in its sole discretion to change that minimum amount from time to time.

The AdvisorDirect Client Questionnaire

The AdvisorDirect Client Questionnaire is designed to solicit information from you so that TD AMERITRADE can refer an Advisor that most closely matches your investment goals, financial needs and risk tolerance. Such information includes your time horizon, preference for investment vehicles and expected rate of return. Your AdvisorDirect Client Questionnaire will only be forwarded to Advisors upon your permission. Each Advisor has agreed to maintain the confidentiality of the information you provide in your AdvisorDirect Client Questionnaire.

To assist TD AMERITRADE in referring an Advisor to you, you will be asked to select from one of the following investment objectives that most closely meets your investment needs:

1. Aggressive Growth. Offers the potential for higher returns for significantly higher levels of risk. Many Aggressive Growth stocks trade at high valuations and pay no dividends, and their value may depend on certain changes in business activity. Aggressive Growth investments may include: growth stocks with high valuations, aggressive stock mutual funds and industry sector mutual funds. Aggressive Growth investments may meet your investment needs if you are seeking long-term capital growth with no immediate need to withdraw funds.
2. Growth. Offers the potential for greater total returns than Growth and Income or Income investments but with increased risk. Growth investments offer little or no dividend income and depend considerably on earnings growth for long-term returns. Growth investments may include: stocks of rapidly growing companies and growth mutual funds. Growth investments may meet your investment needs if you are seeking long-term price appreciation with no immediate need to withdraw funds.
3. Growth and Income. Offers the potential for both long-term growth and current dividend income. Growth and Income investment prices are less stable than Income investments, but their higher dividend income can provide greater price stability than pure Growth investments. Growth and Income investments may include: common stocks with dividends, equity mutual funds with dividends, convertible bonds and real estate investment trusts (REITs). Growth and Income investments may meet your investment needs if you are seeking to achieve a combination of capital appreciation and current income and are willing to assume a degree of risk in return for long-term growth of capital.
4. Income. Offers the potential for a fixed rate of interest or dividend income. Income investments generally decline in value when interest rates rise. Income investments may include: Certificates of Deposit (CDs); corporate, government or municipal bonds; and bond mutual funds. Income investments may meet your investment needs if you are seeking to maximize current income rather than growth of principal. There is still investment risk involved.
5. Capital Preservation. Offers a lower potential rate of return while minimizing investment risk. Capital Preservation investments primarily include money market funds. Capital Preservation investments may meet your investment needs if you are concerned with protecting your principal rather than achieving price appreciation. Capital Preservation investments are generally appropriate for conservative investors.

If you are interested in financial planning services, you may also be matched with an Advisor through AdvisorDirect based on the services you are seeking. An Advisor may provide one or more of the following services:

1. Comprehensive Financial Plan. Complete financial plan that provides you with a long-term strategy for your financial future, taking into consideration your financial situation and how each aspect of it affects your potential to achieve your financial goals and objectives.
2. Specialty Plan. Plan focusing on a single financial goal or issue, such as education funding, retirement planning or estate planning.
3. Hourly Consultation. Hourly assistance on a specific financial issue or concern, such as tax strategies, insurance or business-owner issues.

Advisor Referrals

Once you have completed the AdvisorDirect Client Questionnaire, TD AMERITRADE will refer you to Advisor(s) that may meet your investment needs. TD AMERITRADE will not refer an Advisor to you whose minimum account balance requirement exceeds your investment amount. For each referred Advisor, TD AMERITRADE will provide you with the following materials:

- An Advisor Profile for each Advisor selected that may meet your investment needs; and
- Part II of the Advisor's Form ADV or equivalent brochure ("Brochure").

Each Advisor Profile is prepared by TD AMERITRADE based on information provided by the Advisor. It contains professional information designed to help you make an informed decision about whether a particular Advisor is right for you.

A copy of the Advisor's Brochure accompanies each Advisor Profile. The Brochure is prepared by the Advisor and contains important information regarding the services offered by the Advisor, the fees charged for such services, the general terms by which accounts are managed, how securities are analyzed, the Advisor's affiliations with other financial institutions and a description of the Advisor's education and business background. You should carefully review an Advisor's Brochure before entering into an investment advisory agreement with an Advisor. Neither the SEC nor TD AMERITRADE has reviewed or verified the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained in an Advisor's Brochure. Each Advisor is solely responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the information contained in its Advisor Profile and Brochure.

Unless you elect not to be contacted by an Advisor, a referred Advisor will contact you to arrange an initial personal interview, free of charge and with no obligation. An Advisor may conduct the initial interview by telephone unless you request that it be held in person.

You should consider asking your referred Advisor some questions regarding the Advisor and its investment services. TD AMERITRADE encourages you to thoroughly evaluate the background of, and the investment products offered by, each Advisor. An Advisor will welcome your questions, no matter how basic. The questions provided below are not intended to be exhaustive, and you should ask questions that are specific to your individual situation and investment needs.

Some questions to begin with may include:

What is your investment philosophy?

How does your management style match my investment goals?

Are these investment products registered with the SEC and my state securities agency?

What are the total fees to purchase, sell and maintain this type of investment product?

What are the specific risks of the investment product and what has your past performance been for clients with risk tolerances similar to mine?

How are you compensated and what conflicts of interest, if any, exist with the services you provide?

Have you ever been disciplined by the SEC, a state regulator or other organization?

Although performance returns are a factor that certainly should be considered when selecting an Advisor, you should be careful that you do not select your Advisor solely on the basis of past performance returns. Past performance is never a guarantee of future performance. TD AMERITRADE does not monitor an Advisor's performance, nor is an Advisor's past performance considered for selection for AdvisorDirect.

Each Advisor will assist you in determining whether discretionary investment advice and/or financial planning services is/are suitable for you and the type and nature of investment advisory services that you should obtain. The Advisor will assist you in determining your investment objectives and risk tolerances. If you decline the Advisor's investment advisory services, the Advisor has an agreement with TD AMERITRADE not to refer you to any other investment advisor or financial services firm and has agreed to use its best efforts to refer you back to TD AMERITRADE. If you so choose, TD AMERITRADE may be able to assist you in referring another Advisor that may meet your investment needs.

An Advisor may also assist you in selecting a professional money manager, who would also have discretionary authority to manage all or a portion of your assets. In such a case, the money manager may charge its own advisory fee, which would be in addition to any fees charged by your Advisor.

RELATIONSHIP WITH YOUR ADVISOR

Investment Advisory Agreement

Before you invest with an Advisor, your Advisor will provide you with an investment advisory agreement. Prior to entering into an investment advisory agreement with an Advisor, you must sign a Disclosure and Acknowledgement Form ("Acknowledgement"). By signing the Acknowledgement, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this Disclosure Document and all the information contained in the Acknowledgement. You should carefully review the investment advisory agreement and any additional information provided by the Advisor to ensure that you understand the nature and terms of your relationship. TD AMERITRADE is not a party to the advisory agreement between you and your Advisor.

Authorizations You May Grant Your Advisor

You have the right to authorize your Advisor to make certain types of transactions with respect to assets you custody at TD AMERITRADE. First, you may give your Advisor trading authority over your TD AMERITRADE account. Granting your Advisor trading authority permits your Advisor to act in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if you had acted with respect to transactions in your account. That authority will also apply to anything else necessary or incidental to purchases and sales in your account. Pursuant to such trading authority, your Advisor may authorize TD AMERITRADE to follow its trading orders concerning your account. Second, you may authorize your Advisor in writing to transfer to you or to an account of identical registration at another financial institution money, securities or other property you custody in your TD AMERITRADE account. Finally, under some circumstances, you may authorize your Advisor to disburse assets (including money) from your account to third parties, provided TD AMERITRADE permits it and your Advisor provides you with the necessary disclosure. However, many Advisors will not instruct transfers to third parties, and TD AMERITRADE may not allow such authority over your account. Any of these authorizations that you give to your Advisor will remain in effect until you notify TD AMERITRADE in writing that you have withdrawn your authorization or TD AMERITRADE notifies you that TD AMERITRADE will no longer honor your authorization.

Fees You Pay to Your Advisor

When you select an Advisor through AdvisorDirect, you will be charged by the Advisor fees based on a percentage of your assets under management with the Advisor, a fixed fee or a fee based on an hourly rate. In certain cases, you may also be charged a fee based on the capital appreciation of your assets.

You can review an Advisor's fee schedule in the Brochure provided to you. Your Advisor has agreed not to charge any fees or costs higher than the Advisor's standard fee schedule offered to its other advisory clients. Your advisory fees may vary according to several factors, including, but not limited to, your account size and servicing requirements. An Advisor's Brochure will disclose whether fees may be negotiable. You may authorize TD AMERITRADE to deduct your Advisor's investment advisory fees and expenses from your assets held in custody at TD AMERITRADE and remit them directly to your Advisor.

Monitoring Performance

TD AMERITRADE is registered with the SEC as a broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and as an Investment Advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. TD AMERITRADE may be acting as an investment advisor when referring Advisors to you. However, once you have selected an Advisor, it is your responsibility to monitor your Advisor's performance. TD AMERITRADE is not responsible for selecting your investments, for the performance of your investments or for monitoring the performance of your investments. TD AMERITRADE has no discretionary authority or control with respect to your assets under management with your Advisor, and will only effect securities transactions for your account that have been instructed by you or your Advisor. Your Advisor directs all trades; however, you will receive account statements and trade confirmations from TD AMERITRADE.

Your investments' performance can be monitored in a variety of ways, including promptly reviewing your account statements and trade confirmations, keeping apprised of your investment portfolio and meeting periodically with your Advisor to discuss your investments and/or financial planning objectives.

It is imperative that you promptly review and understand what your account statements and trade confirmations are telling you, and communicate any concerns you have with your Advisor. Your account statements and trade confirmations will assist you in determining whether your investments are meeting your investment expectations and goals and whether the investments are performing as you were led to believe by your Advisor. If your goals have changed, you must make certain that your investments are still suitable. Your Advisor must always have a clear understanding of your current goals and attitudes toward risk, which your Advisor will only know if you communicate this information.

In monitoring your investments' performance, some questions you may want to ask yourself or your Advisor are as follows:

Do my investment returns exceed the current rate of inflation or my advisory fees?

Has the value of my investments been preserved in down markets?

Is the performance of my investments consistent with comparable benchmarks that measure market performance or other money managers with similar money management styles?

How much money will I receive if I sell my investments today?

Is the performance information presented net or gross of fees?

How much am I paying in commissions or fees?

Is the performance information focused solely on a time period of rising markets or external factors that enhance my investments' performance returns?

Remember that it is your investment at stake and that you are paying for the advice of your Advisor. Communicate with your Advisor, and remember that whether you are a beginner or have been investing for many years, it is never too early or too late to start asking questions. If at any time you become dissatisfied with your Advisor, consider withdrawing your Advisor's discretionary or other authority.

Communicating With Your Advisor

TD AMERITRADE will provide you with a periodic statement, no less than quarterly, containing a description of all activity in your account during the preceding period, including all transactions made on behalf of your account, all contributions and withdrawals made by you, all fees and expenses charged to your account and the value of your account at the beginning and end of the period. The number and frequency of communications between you and your Advisor will depend upon the terms and conditions of the investment advisory agreement between you and your Advisor. It is your responsibility to promptly review all your account statements and trade confirmations and to communicate directly with your Advisor if you have any concerns about the management of your account.

Assignment and Termination

Your Advisor cannot assign your investment advisory agreement to another investment advisor without your prior consent.

You may terminate your investment advisory agreement with your Advisor at any time without penalty. If you have prepaid your advisory fees and you terminate your advisory agreement, your Advisor must provide you with a pro rata refund of your prepaid fees.

An Advisor may terminate its participation in AdvisorDirect at any time upon written notice to TD AMERITRADE. Similarly, TD AMERITRADE may remove an Advisor from AdvisorDirect at any time upon written notice to the Advisor. Neither your Advisor nor TD AMERITRADE is obligated to notify you if your Advisor or TD AMERITRADE terminates its relationship with the other. If either your Advisor or TD AMERITRADE terminates its relationship with the other, your Advisor is contractually obligated to continue to pay TD AMERITRADE fees in accordance with the terms discussed immediately below as long as you remain a client of the Advisor.

ONGOING INVOLVEMENT OF TD AMERITRADE

Once you have hired your Advisor, the Investment Consultants ("ICs") at your Branch Office may discuss with you whether it would be appropriate for you to deposit additional assets in your investment advisory account at the Advisor. TD AMERITRADE has an incentive to encourage you to deposit additional assets with your Advisor because the amount of fees your Advisor pays TD AMERITRADE increases as your advisory account grows. Nonetheless, an IC's recommendation that you deposit additional assets in your advisory account does not mean that anyone at TD AMERITRADE has monitored the performance of your investments at the Advisor or is responsible for conducting such monitoring. Furthermore, although an IC may recommend that you give more assets to your Advisor to manage, it is your sole decision to determine whether you wish to act on that recommendation and deposit additional assets with your Advisor.

FEES PAID TO TD AMERITRADE

Before you sign an investment advisory agreement with an Advisor, you are required to sign the Acknowledgement in which you acknowledge that you understand the fees that are paid directly to TD AMERITRADE by your Advisor. Furthermore, as described below, by signing the Acknowledgement, you acknowledge that you understand that you may pay TD AMERITRADE fees for servicing your account.

Fees Paid to TD AMERITRADE for Your Referral

You will not be charged any direct fees for any referrals, materials or assistance provided by TD AMERITRADE's representatives to you in connection with AdvisorDirect. However, the Advisor whom you select to manage your assets compensates TD AMERITRADE for AdvisorDirect referrals according to the fee structure described below. Your Advisor has agreed not to charge you fees or costs higher than the fees or costs your Advisor charges its clients who are not referred through AdvisorDirect or otherwise pass the fees paid to TD AMERITRADE to you. Pursuant to your agreement, your Advisor has agreed to disclose to TD AMERITRADE, upon TD AMERITRADE's request, the amount of your assets receiving the Advisor's investment advisory services that are held in custody with another financial institution. This information may be necessary to TD AMERITRADE to properly calculate the fees your Advisor owes TD AMERITRADE. This information would not otherwise be disclosed to TD AMERITRADE.

Your Advisor will pay TD AMERITRADE a percentage (not to exceed 15%) of the advisory fee that you pay to your Advisor ("Solicitation Fee"). The Advisor will also pay TD AMERITRADE the Solicitation Fee on any advisory fees paid on any assets for any of your family members, including your spouse, children or any other family member who resides with you that you refer to the Advisor ("Family Members").

If your Advisor is not paid its advisory fee from your TD AMERITRADE account, and your Advisor has not informed TD AMERITRADE of the amount of the advisory fee it receives from you or your Advisor otherwise agrees, the Solicitation Fee is calculated as a percentage of the value of the assets in your TD AMERITRADE account. That percentage is generally 0.15% annually. Consequently, if the management fee your Advisor charges you is less than 1.00% annually, your Advisor may have an incentive to encourage you to authorize the deduction of your advisory fees from your TD AMERITRADE account(s).

If at any time after hiring your Advisor you transfer your assets held in custody at TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, your Advisor will pay TD AMERITRADE a one-time fee (not to exceed 0.75%) based on all your assets under management with the Advisor instead of the Solicitation Fee ("One-Time Fee"). Similarly, if any of your Family Members that are advised by the Advisor transfer their assets held in custody at TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, the Advisor will pay to TD AMERITRADE a One-Time Fee (not to exceed 0.75%) based on all Family Members' assets under management with the Advisor instead of the Solicitation Fee.

However, if without the suggestion or encouragement of the Advisor you or a Family Member independently request to move assets from TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, your Advisor will not be required to pay the One-Time Fee on the value of the moved account's assets although the Advisor may be required to continue to pay the Solicitation Fees as described above. To qualify for this exemption from the One-Time Fee, your Advisor must be able to reasonably establish that you or your Family Member independently requested that such assets be moved to another financial institution.

Your Advisor may have an incentive to encourage you to hold your assets under management in custody at TD AMERITRADE rather than another financial institution, which is likely to result in TD AMERITRADE receiving compensation for securities transactions effected for your account. TD AMERITRADE's fees for effecting securities transactions in your account are in addition to the fees paid by your Advisor to TD AMERITRADE for participation in AdvisorDirect.

Beginning in calendar year 2006, your Advisor has agreed to pay TD AMERITRADE the greater of $10,000 per calendar year for participation in the program ("Minimum Participation Fee") or the aggregate of all Solicitation Fees the Advisor receives from its AdvisorDirect clients during the calendar year. If the referral agreement entered into between your Advisor and TD AMERITRADE is terminated, the Minimum Participation Fee will no longer apply. However, all other fees described above will continue to apply to your assets and your Family Members' assets that continue to receive investment advisory services from your Advisor.

TD AMERITRADE is entitled to its referral fees whether or not you pay your advisory fees to your Advisor. In certain instances, TD AMERITRADE may waive or reduce fees including, but not limited to, the Minimum Participation Fee paid by your Advisor. TD AMERITRADE may waive or reduce these fees based on, among other things, the amount of the Advisor's clients' assets held in custody with TD AMERITRADE and the securities trading activity of the Advisor's clients that are not referred to the Advisor through AdvisorDirect. Consequently, in order to obtain fee waivers or reductions from TD AMERITRADE, the Advisor may have an incentive to recommend to you that the assets under management by the Advisor be held in custody with TD AMERITRADE and to place transactions for your accounts with TD AMERITRADE. You may request from your Advisor additional information regarding your Advisor's fee arrangement with TD AMERITRADE.

Fees Paid to TD AMERITRADE for Servicing Your Account With Your Advisor

It is highly likely that your Advisor will use TD AMERITRADE to effect your securities transactions, which will generate brokerage commissions and other revenues for TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates in connection with your trading activity. You may direct your Advisor to use any brokerage firm of your choice. TD AMERITRADE may charge you a fee for clearance and settlement of any trade held in custody by TD AMERITRADE that is executed through a brokerage firm other than TD AMERITRADE.

You agree to pay, and are legally responsible for, any charges for any securities transactions made by your Advisor in your account through TD AMERITRADE, including brokerage commissions on agency transactions, and markups or markdowns on transactions for your account in which TD AMERITRADE acts as principal for its own account. From time to time, TD AMERITRADE may negotiate fee schedules with your Advisor that apply to your account. Fees and commissions for brokerage services through a TD AMERITRADE account generally are due at the time of each transaction.

Temporary cash or other balances in your account may be kept in your account as free credit balances or invested by your Advisor in a money market, tax-exempt or other mutual fund managed by an affiliate or non-affiliate of TD AMERITRADE. Like most mutual funds, these funds pay advisory fees and other expenses in addition to the advisory fee you pay your Advisor. Temporary cash or other balances in your account may be also in an affiliated bank.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

AdvisorDirect is a referral service that provides information about independent investment advisors. TD AMERITRADE will assist you in selecting an investment advisory firm that may meet your investment needs by providing you with information for your analysis and evaluation. It is your sole decision to select an Advisor referred to you, grant an Advisor discretionary authority over your assets or obtain financial planning services from an Advisor. The attendance of a TD AMERITRADE representative at any meeting with an Advisor does not alter in any way your sole responsibility for selecting and monitoring your Advisor. Although TD AMERITRADE may be acting as an investment advisor in referring your Advisor to you and/or encouraging you to deposit additional assets with your Advisor, TD AMERITRADE will not provide investment advice to you in connection with your assets under management with an Advisor. Nonetheless, pursuant to the referral agreement entered into between your Advisor and TD AMERITRADE, your Advisor may not be permitted to invest your assets in specific securities or specific classes of securities such as privately offered securities. If you had hired your Advisor without being referred to the Advisor through TD AMERITRADE, the Advisor would not be subject to such investment restrictions with respect to your account. You may ask your Advisor whether your account will be subject to any such restrictions.

An Advisor may use a third-party investment advisor and/or vendor for some or all of your investment and account servicing needs. TD AMERITRADE has not evaluated any such third party and makes no representation regarding such services. Other than Advisors referred to you through TD AMERITRADE's Managed Assets Program ("MAP"), you and your Advisor have the sole responsibility for evaluating and monitoring any such third party. A separate disclosure document will be provided to you if you participate in MAP, which outlines TD AMERITRADE's responsibilities to you. See also below for more information about the MAP program.

The Advisor that you select is not an employee or agent of TD AMERITRADE nor is it affiliated or controlled by, or under common ownership with, TD AMERITRADE. Each Advisor participating in AdvisorDirect is a separate, independent business. Any contrary representation by an Advisor, either orally or written, is unauthorized and does not in any way alter the relationship between the Advisor and TD AMERITRADE.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ASSETS SUBJECT TO ERISA AND/OR COMPARABLE PROVISIONS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

If you are investing assets of an employee benefit plan subject to Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") and/or Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code, including assets held in Individual Retirement Accounts ("IRAs"), Keogh plans and other similar accounts, you must be aware that you are solely responsible for deciding to participate in AdvisorDirect and for selecting the Advisor for your plan or account. TD AMERITRADE will not make these important decisions for you. Moreover, TD AMERITRADE is not an "investment manager" or a "fiduciary" within the meaning of ERISA with respect to your account as a result of AdvisorDirect. Under AdvisorDirect, TD AMERITRADE will not render advice on a regular basis pursuant to an arrangement or understanding that such advice shall serve as the primary basis for investment decisions for your account. Rather, under AdvisorDirect, TD AMERITRADE will provide information that will enable you to independently determine whether one or more Advisors are appropriate for your plan or account. Among the factors that you must consider in making that determination (as well as the determination to participate in AdvisorDirect) are the following:

- the role that any particular Advisor will play in your plan's or account's investment portfolio as a whole;
- the risk of loss and the opportunity for gain (or other return) associated with the Advisor;
- the composition of your plan's or account's investment portfolio with regard to diversification;
- the liquidity and current return of your plan's or account's investment portfolio relative to its anticipated cash flow requirements; and
- the projected return on your plan's or account's investment portfolio relative to your investment objectives for the plan or account.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Described below are a wide range of conflicts of interest associated with TD AMERITRADE's various products, services and programs. The conflicts of interest described below may or may not apply to you depending on the products and services you and your Advisor receive from TD AMERITRADE and the TD AMERITRADE programs in which you and your Advisor participate.

Your Advisor may suggest broker/dealers to you, including TD AMERITRADE, for brokerage, custody and other services for which you would compensate a broker/dealer. If you open a brokerage account with TD AMERITRADE, you will be asked to indemnify and hold TD AMERITRADE and TD AMERITRADE's officers, directors, agents, employees and affiliates harmless from all losses, costs, indebtedness and liabilities arising from actions directed by you or your Advisor.

If you use TD AMERITRADE as a broker, you may be subject to all or some of the following fees: (i) commissions, markups, markdowns, spreads and other transactional charges on securities transactions effected through TD AMERITRADE or with brokers and dealers other than TD AMERITRADE; (ii) interest on debit account balances, where applicable; (iii) the entire public offering price (including underwriting commissions or discounts) on securities purchased from an underwriter or dealer (including TD AMERITRADE) involved in a distribution of securities; (iv) markups, markdowns and bid-ask spreads; (v) odd lot differentials; (vi) exchange fees, transfer taxes and other fees required by law; (vii) Individual Retirement Account fees, qualified retirement plan account fees and other account maintenance fees; and (viii) other fees that may be assessed by TD AMERITRADE in its capacity as broker and custodian upon notice to you. TD AMERITRADE may also receive trailing commissions from mutual funds for purchases of mutual fund shares by you.

Your Advisor participates in TD AMERITRADE's institutional client program and thus your Advisor may recommend TD AMERITRADE to you for custody and brokerage services. There is no direct link between an Advisor's participation in the program and the investment advice it gives to its clients, although an Advisor may receive several benefits through TD AMERITRADE that may or may not directly benefit you, including: (i) duplicate client confirmations; (ii) research-related products and tools; (iii) consulting services; (iv) access to a trading desk serving advisor participants; (v) access to block trading (which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions for execution and then allocate the appropriate shares to client accounts); (vi) the ability to have advisory fees deducted directly from client accounts; (vii) access to an electronic communications network for client order entry and account information; (viii) access to mutual funds with no transaction fees and to certain institutional money managers; and (ix) discounts on compliance, marketing, research, technology and practice management products or services provided by third parties. In addition, TD AMERITRADE may pay or reimburse expenses (including travel, lodging, meals and entertainment expenses) for Advisor's personnel to attend conferences or meetings relating to the program or to TD AMERITRADE's Advisor, custody and brokerage services generally. These benefits received by your Advisor do not depend on the amount of brokerage transactions directed to TD AMERITRADE. As part of its fiduciary duties to you, your Advisor will endeavor at all times to put your interests first. You should be aware, however, that the receipt of economic benefits by your Advisor in and of itself creates a potential conflict of interest.

You may pay brokerage commissions for trades placed by your Advisor for your account in excess of that which another broker/dealer may charge for effecting the same transaction in recognition of the value of brokerage and research services provided to the Advisor by or through the broker/dealer ("soft dollars"). The Advisor may use the products and services received from broker/dealers to service all of its client accounts. Thus, not all such services may be used to benefit your account even though you paid the brokerage commissions that resulted in the receipt of such brokerage and research services. Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 provides a "safe harbor" to investment advisors who use commission dollars of their advised accounts to obtain investment research and brokerage services that provide lawful and appropriate assistance to the Advisor in performing investment decision-making responsibilities. Nonetheless, the use of brokerage commissions to obtain research and brokerage-related products and services creates a conflict of interest between an investment advisor and its clients because the clients pay for products or services that are not exclusively for their benefit and may be primarily or exclusively for the benefit of the investment advisor. TD AMERITRADE may provide soft-dollar research and brokerage services to Advisors that participate in AdvisorDirect.

TD AMERITRADE generally does not compensate Advisors whose clients maintain accounts at TD AMERITRADE. From time to time, however, TD AMERITRADE Institutional, a division of TD AMERITRADE, may wish to provide compensation to certain Advisors to induce them to transfer, or recommend and facilitate the transfer of, a specified minimum amount of client assets to accounts at TD AMERITRADE. Any such compensation will be outside the scope of any soft-dollar arrangement that TD AMERITRADE may have with the Advisor. The compensation provided to an Advisor may include reimbursement or waiver of fees or expenses related to the Advisor's business as an Advisor, or the provision of services or other things of value for use in connection with the Advisor's business. If your Advisor receives such compensation from TD AMERITRADE Institutional, it will have a conflict of interest in recommending that you custody your assets at TD AMERITRADE.

If you or your Advisor places an order to buy or sell securities in one or more of your TD AMERITRADE brokerage accounts, TD AMERITRADE will route the order to TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. (Clearing), its affiliated clearing firm, for execution on a fully disclosed basis. TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may act as agent or principal on the trade. When acting as principal, TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. will buy or sell the securities for its own account, accept the risk of market price and liquidity fluctuations and receive a dealer's profit or loss when executing an order. When executing orders in fixed-income securities as principal, TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. receives a dealer markup or markdown on such transactions.

TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may also act as your or your Advisor's agent. In acting as agent, TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. sends your order to an exchange, another market maker or an electronic communications network (ECN) for execution. For both over-the-counter and listed stocks, options and fixed-income transactions, TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may execute orders on an agency basis by crossing your order with TD AMERITRADE's other client orders. TD AMERITRADE does not make a trading profit on such transactions but may receive commissions from both sides of such transactions and, as such, TD AMERITRADE and TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may have a potentially conflicting division of loyalties and responsibilities.

TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. directs TD AMERITRADE's orders to various venues, including exchanges, markets, dealers and its affiliate, TD Options LLC, for execution. Clearing may receive payments for directing TD AMERITRADE's order flow to these venues. TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. provides quarterly reports that present a general overview of its routing practices at <http://www.tdameritrade.com/orderdisclosure.html>. TD AMERITRADE benefits from these arrangements indirectly, through its affiliation with Clearing. If your Advisor places an order to buy or sell securities in connection with a TD AMERITRADE brokerage account for you when the Advisor has retained the sub-advisory services of Amerivest Investment Management, LLC ("Amerivest"), the order will be routed to TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc., an affiliated broker/dealer, for execution on an agency or principal basis.

TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. is the transfer agent for certain money market mutual funds that may be used by TD AMERITRADE as the cash sweep vehicle for uninvested funds in a client's account. As transfer agent, TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may be paid a fee by each fund as described in each fund's prospectus. This fee is paid in addition to any fees paid by the client directly to TD AMERITRADE for services.

TD AMERITRADE, together with its affiliated entities, and in its capacity as a securities broker/dealer, investment banker and investment advisor, is routinely engaged in various securities transactions and trading activities for various clients and customers (in addition to the client) which could create conflicts of interest among its duties to other clients. As a broker/dealer and together with its affiliated entities, on an ongoing basis and as permitted by applicable law, TD AMERITRADE may, where appropriate:

- a. act as principal, buy securities for itself from, or sell securities it owns to, a client;
- b. act as broker or agent, effect securities transactions for compensation for a client;
- c. act as broker or agent for any person other than a client, effect transactions in which client securities are sold to or bought from a brokerage client;
- d. recommend to clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which TD AMERITRADE or a related person has some financial interest;
- e. buy or sell for itself securities that it also recommends to clients;
- f. receive payments from mutual funds, mutual fund advisors and/or their underwriters in connection with investments by clients in those mutual funds;
- g. receive monetary and non-monetary compensation when it sends orders to a particular exchange, market or dealer, a practice commonly known as "payment for order flow";
- h. receive compensation from, participate in the profits of, and have reciprocal routing arrangements with, certain affiliated and independent exchange specialists and dealers who execute orders; and
- i. receive rebates and credits against fees paid to various exchanges.

In connection with its participation as a member of syndicates underwriting public offerings of equity and fixed-income securities, TD AMERITRADE may make unsolicited telephone calls to clients who have brokerage accounts with TD AMERITRADE and to investment advisors whose clients maintain brokerage accounts with TD AMERITRADE, including Advisors participating in AdvisorDirect, to advise of the availability of the securities through TD AMERITRADE and inquire whether the clients and investment advisors, on behalf of the client accounts they manage, are interested in purchasing the securities in the public offering.

TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates may give advice and take action in performing their duties to other clients that differ from advice given, or the timing and nature of action taken, with respect to the client's accounts.

In addition to money market funds, your account assets may from time to time be invested in shares of other, unaffiliated open-end investment companies (mutual funds). Since TD AMERITRADE may act as selling agent and/or underwriter and/or render other services for various funds advised and/or sponsored by certain of its affiliates or non-affiliates, including registered funds, hedge funds, venture capital or real estate investment funds and other similar investment vehicles, TD AMERITRADE or its affiliates may receive compensation for such services. For example, TD AMERITRADE may receive payments from unaffiliated mutual funds, mutual fund advisors and/or their underwriters, including Rule 12b-1 and other asset-based charges in connection with investments by TD AMERITRADE clients. Such payments may, where permitted under applicable regulatory requirements, be retained by TD AMERITRADE. In addition, if and to the extent that your account assets are invested in mutual funds and/or variable annuities, then you may indirectly pay duplicate advisory and other fees in connection with such investments because you could be charged advisory fees by the advisors to the funds in addition to the advisory fees you pay your Advisor. Furthermore, if your Advisor invests the assets in affiliated mutual funds that may be advised by your Advisor, you may pay duplicate advisory fees to your Advisor.

In the course of their respective investment banking activities or otherwise, TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates may from time to time acquire material, nonpublic or other information about corporations or other entities or their securities. TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates are not obligated, and may not be permitted, to divulge any such information to or for the benefit of its clients, or otherwise act on the basis of any such information in providing services to clients.

In addition, TD AMERITRADE may recommend to its clients and Advisors on behalf of their clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which TD AMERITRADE or a related person has some financial interest. For instance, it may recommend to clients that they buy or sell securities or investment products in which its affiliates have a financial interest, for example, when an affiliate acts as a placement agent for particular securities. A second example is the affiliated money market mutual funds used by TD AMERITRADE as the cash sweep vehicle for uninvested funds in a client's account. TD Asset Management USA Inc. ("TDAM"), an affiliate of TD AMERITRADE, acts as investment advisor to the affiliated money market funds, and TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. acts as the transfer agent for these funds. TDAM and TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. both receive fees from the affiliated money market funds based on the size of such money market funds. As advisor to these funds, TDAM will be paid a management fee by each fund as described in each fund's prospectus. This fee is paid in addition to any fees paid to TD AMERITRADE through AdvisorDirect or any fees TD AMERITRADE receives from a client for other services provided by TD AMERITRADE. In addition, payments may be made by TDAM to TD AMERITRADE pursuant to a Services Agreement for TD AMERITRADE's making the TDAM funds available to its clients and performing certain marketing support services with respect to those funds.

Your Advisor may participate in MAP pursuant to which TD AMERITRADE makes execution and custody services and the services of independent money managers available to referred clients of Advisors and the Advisor's other clients for a bundled fee. TD AMERITRADE may recommend an Advisor to you who in turn recommends that you participate in MAP which would result in TD AMERITRADE receiving additional fees.

Your Advisor may also participate in the TD AMERITRADE Managed Assets Network ("MAN"). Through MAN, TD AMERITRADE offers financial advisors ("Financial Advisors") the ability to introduce their clients to institutional-level, separate account money managers. The asset managers ("Asset Managers") participating in MAN perform security selection and order placement and receive management fees per an agreed-upon schedule. TD AMERITRADE serves as broker/dealer providing custody and securities execution services. TD AMERITRADE is compensated for its services by charging a monthly custodial fee to client accounts participating in MAN. The custodial fee is in addition to the fees charged by the Asset Manager and the Financial Advisor. TD AMERITRADE provides trade confirmations and monthly statements to client accounts participating in MAN.

TD AMERITRADE may make research generated by certain of its affiliates available to clients who have brokerage accounts at TD AMERITRADE, including brokerage clients to whom TD AMERITRADE has previously rendered or may in the future render investment advisory services and to investment advisors whose clients maintain brokerage accounts with TD AMERITRADE, including, but not limited to, Advisors participating in AdvisorDirect.

Compensation for TD AMERITRADE ICs consists of a salary component and an incentive bonus component. The incentive bonus pool is funded at each branch level based on several factors that may include branch net assets, branch new accounts and corporate profitability. The allocation of the branch incentive bonus funding to individual ICs is based on individual performance across several factors relating to sales practices, gross assets acquired, new accounts opened and teamwork. An IC's successful referral of your assets to an Advisor may increase the IC's incentive bonus. Furthermore, if subsequent to hiring your Advisor you give the Advisor additional assets to manage based in part on the recommendation of an IC, that IC's incentive bonus may increase.

In addition to the salary and incentive bonus component, ICs receive additional compensation for referring client assets to Advisors. If you decide to hire an Advisor based upon the referral of an IC, the IC receives compensation from TD AMERITRADE in amounts ranging from $70 for advised accounts of $25,000 or more to up to $5,000 for advised accounts of $6 million or more and may receive indirect additional bonus compensation depending on the total amount of the IC's advice referrals in a quarterly period. Furthermore, during certain times, TD AMERITRADE may run sales contests where ICs may receive trips, gifts, meals, tickets or other entertainment for successfully referring you to an Advisor or playing a role in your decision to deposit additional assets with your Advisor. This incentive opportunity could result in supplemental cash payments ranging from $2,000 to $6,000. In addition, branch office managers receive bonuses if the ICs in their office make successful referrals to AdvisorDirect or play a role in investors' decisions to deposit additional assets with their Advisors. Consequently, ICs and branch office managers have incentives to encourage you to hire an Advisor on the AdvisorDirect platform or to deposit additional assets with your Advisor, and because of those incentives, they may recommend that you hire an Advisor on AdvisorDirect or deposit additional assets with your Advisor instead of choosing other investment options for your assets.

TD AMERITRADE makes no representation regarding the Advisor's provision of any other advice or services other than investment management or financial planning. If you engage your Advisor to perform such services, that is strictly a matter between you and your Advisor, and TD AMERITRADE has no involvement in or connection to that aspect of your advisory relationship. If an Advisor refers you to a third party for any services, that relationship is also strictly between you and the Advisor and is beyond the scope of AdvisorDirect.

TD AMERITRADE has adopted and enforces internal policies and procedures with respect to conflicts of interest between TD AMERITRADE and its clients in purchasing and selling securities for its own account and for client accounts. Pursuant to these policies and procedures, TD AMERITRADE, when engaging in the activities enumerated above, treats client orders fairly and does not give its own orders preference over client orders. Where required by applicable law or exchange rules, TD AMERITRADE obtains the consent of affected clients in advance of any transactions in which TD AMERITRADE will be engaging in the enumerated activities. When TD AMERITRADE engages in the enumerated activities, all statements and/or confirmations of such transactions contain the disclosures required by applicable law and exchange rules.

TD AMERITRADE ICs who are investment advisor representatives of Amerivest have the ability to refer clients to Amerivest and receive compensation for such referrals. The compensation that an IC receives from TD AMERITRADE for a referral of a client to Amerivest is similar to the compensation the IC receives for a referral to an AdvisorDirect Advisor. Consequently, ICs have no greater incentive to refer a client to Amerivest than to an AdvisorDirect Advisor.

CODE OF ETHICS

TD AMERITRADE has adopted a Code of Ethics (“Code of Conduct”) that sets forth the standards of conduct expected of TD AMERITRADE personnel. The Code of Conduct reflects TD AMERITRADE’s belief in the absolute necessity to conduct all business, make all decisions and carry on all personal activities at the highest ethical and professional levels. TD AMERITRADE requires personnel to make their personal brokerage account statement information available to the Compliance Department and requires the Compliance Department to preapprove certain investments. TD AMERITRADE is required to keep copies of the Code of Conduct and records relating to the Code of Conduct. TD AMERITRADE personnel are required to submit an annual acknowledgement and certification stating that the individuals have complied with the Code of Conduct.

All associates, officers and directors of TD AMERITRADE are required to comply with the Code of Conduct. TD AMERITRADE personnel are required to report violation(s) or potential violation(s) of the TD AMERITRADE Code of Conduct of which they become aware. The standards set forth in the Code of Conduct are intended to protect the associates and clients of TD AMERITRADE, the shareholders of TD AMERITRADE and the organization as a whole. The Code of Conduct also contains policies involving the safeguarding of proprietary and nonpublic information and the use of nonpublic information regarding a client.

TD AMERITRADE will provide a copy of the Code of Conduct to any client or prospective client upon request.

PROXY VOTING

While TD AMERITRADE is an investment advisor registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, it has no investment discretion over securities in client accounts. Because TD AMERITRADE lacks such investment discretion, it does not have authority over, and specifically disclaims responsibility for, voting proxies for securities in client accounts. Since TD AMERITRADE does not have proxy voting authority over securities in client accounts, TD AMERITRADE is not required to have, and does not have, policies and procedures in place to govern the voting of proxies.

INFORMATION ABOUT TD AMERITRADE

TD AMERITRADE and its Affiliates

TD AMERITRADE provides custody, brokerage and other financial services to independent financial advisors and their clients. TD AMERITRADE Institutional is a division of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. (member FINRA/SIPC). TD AMERITRADE is a subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE Online Holdings Corp., which is a wholly owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation (formerly known as Ameritrade Holding Corporation). TD AMERITRADE is a registered broker/dealer that principally provides discount brokerage services. Almost 100% of TD AMERITRADE’s business is derived from brokerage and related services. TD AMERITRADE client accounts are carried on a fully disclosed basis by its affiliates, or TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc, and clients are charged discount brokerage commissions. Another affiliate may execute certain types of client orders: TD Options LLC, an Options Specialist on the American Stock Exchange, a Designated Primary Market Maker on the Chicago Board Options Exchange, a Competing Market Maker on the International Securities Exchange and a Market Maker on the Boston Options Exchange.

TD Asset Management USA Inc. (“TDAM”), a registered investment advisor affiliated with TD AMERITRADE, may be investment advisor to certain money market mutual funds that may be used by TD AMERITRADE as the cash sweep vehicle for uninvested funds in a client’s account.

TD Bank, N.A. (member FDIC) and TD Bank USA, N.A. (member FDIC) are national banks that offer a money market deposit account that may be used by TD AMERITRADE as the cash sweep vehicle for uninvested funds in a client's cash account. In this capacity, TD Bank, N.A. and TD Bank USA, N.A. may earn certain fees and revenues in connection with client assets swept from a client's account.

TD AMERITRADE and TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. are wholly owned subsidiaries of TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation. TDAM, TD Bank, N.A., TD Bank USA, N.A., and TD Options are owned and controlled by The Toronto-Dominion Bank (NYSE:TD), which has an ownership interest in TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation.

For additional information on TD AMERITRADE, please visit TD AMERITRADE’s Web site at www.tdameritrade.com.

Disciplinary Actions

The SEC and other regulatory agencies and organizations have, in the past, taken certain disciplinary actions against TD AMERITRADE (formerly, TD Waterhouse Investor Services, Inc. and herein “TD Waterhouse”) for alleged violations of the federal securities laws and regulations and rules. The matters have been settled, and TD Waterhouse has paid fines with respect to such violations.

On September 16, 2004, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) instituted cease-and-desist proceedings pursuant to Section 15(b)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and Section 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the “Advisers Act”) against TD Waterhouse for allegedly making undisclosed payments to three investment advisors, which the investment advisors failed to disclose, to encourage the investment advisors to use TD Waterhouse for their clients’ brokerage business. The SEC alleged that TD Waterhouse did not follow its internal compliance procedures, which required it to ensure that the investment advisors that received payments from TD Waterhouse adequately disclosed those payments in their Forms ADV. Without admitting or denying the allegations, TD Waterhouse submitted an Offer of Settlement, which the SEC accepted, in which TD Waterhouse was: (i) censured pursuant to Section 15(b)(4) of the Exchange Act; (ii) ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Sections 206(2) and 207 of the Advisers Act; and (iii) ordered to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of $2,000,000.

On April 29, 2004, TD Waterhouse submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent (“AWC”) with the NASD, Inc. for the purpose of proposing a settlement, without admitting or denying the allegations or findings contained therein, regarding TD Waterhouse’s alleged failure to establish and maintain an adequate supervisory system and written procedures reasonably designed to detect and prevent late trading in mutual fund transactions, a violation of Rule 22c-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The AWC stated that as a result of the shortcomings in TD Waterhouse’s supervisory system and written procedures, TD Waterhouse violated NASD Rules 3010 and 2110. The AWC was accepted by the NASD, Inc. In connection with the AWC, TD Waterhouse was censured and paid a fine in the amount of $150,000.

On December 18, 2003, TD Waterhouse submitted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent (“AWC”) with the NASD, Inc. for the purpose of proposing a settlement, without admitting or denying the allegations or findings contained therein, regarding TD Waterhouse’s alleged failure to report to Trade Reporting and Compliance Engine (“TRACE”) 9,033 transactions in TRACE-eligible securities within 75 minutes after execution in violation of NASD Conduct Rule 2110 and NASD Marketplace Rule 6230(A). In connection with the AWC, TD Waterhouse paid a fine in the amount of $5,000.

In an administrative proceeding filed on December 8, 2000, the New York Stock Exchange Division of Enforcement alleged that when TD Waterhouse was unable to process client orders online; it did not adequately advise its clients of alternative order entry systems; it maintained inadequate telephone systems; it continued to advertise for and open new online client accounts; and it did not adequately respond to clients’ email complaints. In connection with the foregoing, TD Waterhouse was in violation of Exchange Rule 342, Exchange Rule 351(d) and Exchange Rule 345A and 345.10. TD Waterhouse consented to a censure and a fine in the amount of $225,000.

KEY OPERATIONAL MANAGEMENT TEAM OF TD AMERITRADE IS AS FOLLOWS:

J. Thomas Bradley Jr., born 1962, joined TD Waterhouse in August 1986 and serves as the Executive Vice President, Trust & Institutional Services, of TD AMERITRADE, Inc., and President of its Institutional division. Mr. Bradley holds a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Richmond.

Thomas A. Nally, born 1971, joined TD Waterhouse in February 1994 and serves as the Managing Director of Sales for TD AMERITRADE Institutional. Mr. Nally holds a B.S. in Finance from Rider University.

Laurine Marie Garrity, born 1961, has served as Chief Marketing Officer of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since April 24, 2006. Ms. Garrity joined Ameritrade Holding Corporation as Senior Vice President, Chief Marketing Officer, in January 2005. Ms. Garrity holds a B.A. from Barnard College, Columbia University.

Lisa J. Henoch, born 1963, has served as Chief Compliance Officer of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since June 1, 2007. Ms. Henoch joined TD AMERITRADE, Inc. as Managing Director, Compliance, in September 2006 and served as Chief Compliance Officer of TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. until June 2007. Ms. Henoch was Sr. Regional Attorney and Associate Director of FINRA, District 4, from 1996 to 2006. Ms. Henoch holds a B.A. from the University of California at Los Angeles and a JD from the University of Missouri at Kansas City.

Joseph V. Vitale, born 1963, has served as Senior Manager of Compliance Support for Institutional Services of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since April 24, 2006. Mr. Vitale joined TD Waterhouse in September of 2005 as the VP of Institutional Compliance. Mr. Vitale holds an A.B.A. from St. John's University.

John Bradley Bunch, born 1966, has been the President, Retail division, of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since October 2008 and has been Executive Vice President, Branch Distribution, since April 24, 2006. Mr. Bunch joined TD Waterhouse as Executive Vice President, Branch Distribution, in June 2004.

William Joseph Gerber, born 1958, has been Chief Financial Officer/FINOP of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since April 24, 2006. Mr. Gerber joined Ameritrade Holding Corporation in 1999 and has been its Managing Director, Finance since January 2003. Mr. Gerber holds a B.B.A. from the University of Michigan.

Michael Douglas Chochon, born 1968, has been Treasurer of TD AMERITRADE, Inc. since April 24, 2006. Mr. Chochon joined Ameritrade Holding Corporation in January 2003 and has been its Treasurer since October 2005. Mr. Chochon holds a B.B.A. in Accounting from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Zohar Swaine, born 1972, joined TD AMERITRADE, Inc. in September 2007 and serves as the Managing Director for Strategy and Product for TD AMERITRADE Institutional. Mr. Swaine holds a B.S. in Finance and International Business from New York University.

OTHER ADVISORY PRODUCTS

In addition to AdvisorDirect, TD AMERITRADE offers one additional advisory product to its clients: the Managed Assets Program.

TD AMERITRADE MANAGED ASSETS PROGRAM

TD AMERITRADE (the "Sponsor") offers a wrap-fee program to independent investment advisors and the clients of the investment advisors (each, a "Program Client") who use TD AMERITRADE as a broker and custodian for their managed assets. The program, known as the TD AMERITRADE Managed Assets Program ("MAP"), is administered by TD AMERITRADE, in its capacity as Sponsor, and Envestnet Asset Management, Inc. ("Envestnet"). Envestnet is an independent investment management firm that provides investment management and investment advisory services.

Program Client assets in MAP are invested in separate accounts ("Separate Account Program Assets") managed by unaffiliated money managers, as sub-managers ("Sub-Managers"), retained by Envestnet.

Services provided by Envestnet include:

- Assessment of the Program Client's investment needs and objectives
- Investment policy planning
- Development of an asset allocation strategy designed to meet the Program Client's objectives
- Recommendations on suitable style allocations
- Identification of appropriate Sub-Managers and investment vehicles meeting style and allocation criteria
- Evaluation of Sub-Managers and investment vehicles on behalf of the Program Client
- Engaging selected Sub-Managers as to investment vehicles on behalf of the Program Client
- Ongoing monitoring of individual Sub-Manager's performance
- Review of Program Client accounts to ensure adherence to policy guidelines and asset allocation
- Recommendations for account rebalancing, if necessary
- Online and paper reporting of Program Client account's performance and progress
- Fully integrated back-office support systems to Sub-Managers

TD AMERITRADE provides each independent investment advisor with a Client Profile to be used to obtain information relevant to the financial position and objectives of the Program Client and to determine that the use of a particular Sub-Manager is appropriate and suitable. Envestnet's asset allocation and financial planning strategy development services assist Program Clients in meeting their goals and objectives. Using demographic and financial information provided by the Program Client and the independent investment advisor, Envestnet will assess the Program Client's risk profile and investment objectives in determining an appropriate plan of action for the assets placed in MAP. Envestnet's research team uses a number of proprietary analytical tools and commercially available optimization software applications in developing its asset allocation strategies. Among the factors considered in designing these strategies are historical rates of risk and return for various asset classes, correlation across asset classes and risk premiums.

Envestnet retains Sub-Managers to manage Program Client accounts. In some cases, Sub-Managers construct a model portfolio which Envestnet will use to invest Program Client assets. Envestnet may recommend investment in certain mutual funds or alternative investments, such as hedge funds and private equity funds, depending on an individual Program Client's investment objectives and available assets for investment. In some cases, independent investment advisors may contract with Envestnet, and the independent investment advisor will provide asset allocation services to Program Clients in connection with the selection of investment options in MAP.

TD AMERITRADE makes available two different MAPs:

1. The TD AMERITRADE Premier Program: Program Clients in the TD AMERITRADE Premier Program receive a variety of services, including Program Client profiling, strategic asset allocation, style allocation, research and evaluation of Sub-Managers, ongoing monitoring of Sub-Manager and account performance, Sub-Manager hiring and termination, account rebalancing, account reporting and other operational and administrative services.
2. The TD AMERITRADE PremierPlus Program: Program Clients in the TD AMERITRADE PremierPlus Program receive all of the TD AMERITRADE Premier Program services, plus their financial advisor has access to Envestnet's Investment Officers, who can help evaluate and construct a Program Client's portfolio, coordinate meetings with the Sub-Manager for the financial advisor and suggest rebalancing options to the financial advisor for the Program Client portfolio.

MAP is intended to comply with Rule 3a-4 under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Each Program Client's account is managed on the basis of the Program Client's individual financial situation. Each Program Client has the opportunity to select the account's investment objective and impose reasonable restrictions on the management of the assets in the account. In addition, Program Clients will be contacted annually and notified quarterly by their independent investment advisor in order to confirm the accuracy of this information.

Fees

Program Clients in MAP pay an all-inclusive fee. This fee is administered by TD AMERITRADE, which retains a portion of the fee for custody, clearing, transaction execution and monthly statement reporting charges. TD AMERITRADE remits a portion of the Program Client fee to Envestnet, which pays the Sub-Manager, and retains a portion of the fee. The Sub-Manager's fee generally will fall within a range of 0.15%–0.75% of assets under management. Fees charged are calculated as an annual percentage of assets based on the market value of the account at the end of each quarter. Fees are billed on a calendar quarter basis in advance and prorated to the end of the quarter upon inception of the account. The level of the fee will vary with the amount of assets under advisement in MAP and the particular investment styles and investment options chosen or recommended. Program Clients may receive comparable services from other sources for fees that are lower or higher than those charged by TD AMERITRADE and Envestnet.

Program Clients in the TD AMERITRADE PremierPlus Program are charged an investment management fee for the services described above. Program Clients in the TD AMERITRADE Premier Program do not receive all of these services, but pay a lower program fee.

The fees for the Premier and PremierPlus Programs are per separate account manager portfolio.

The MAP fees are deducted on a quarterly basis in advance. The minimum fee for the Premier and PremierPlus Program is $100 per month, per account.

Fee Schedule (Not Including the Fee Charged by the Independent Investment Advisor)

The standard fee schedule for such services is as follows, but may be negotiable in individual cases. Fees are calculated on a per-account basis. Fees charged by independent investment advisors are not included in the MAP fee. These fees are negotiated separately between the independent investment advisor and its MAP Program Clients. The independent investment advisor may arrange to have Envestnet collect these fees when it collects the MAP fee, and Envestnet will remit such fees to the independent investment advisor.

Account Size	Annual Fee: Equity/Balanced Portfolios	Annual Fee: Fixed-Income Portfolios
TD AMERITRADE MAP – Premier (Minimum Investment $100,000)
First $250,000	1.00%	0.70%
Next $250,000	0.85%	0.65%
Next $500,000	0.80%	0.60%
Next $1,000,000	0.75%	0.55%
Next $3,000,000	0.70%	0.50%
Over $5,000,000	Negotiable	Negotiable

Effective, January 1, 2010, the following fee schedule will apply to all MAP accounts:

Separately Managed Accounts

Account Size	Annual Fee: Equity/Balanced Portfolios	Annual Fee: Fixed-Income Portfolios	Annual Fee: Mutual Funds
First $250,000	1.00%	0.70%	0.20%
$250,001-$500,000	0.85%	0.65%	0.20%
$500,001-$1,000,000	0.80%	0.60%	0.18%
$1,000,001-$2,000,000	0.75%	0.55%	0.15%
$2,000,001-$5,000,000	0.70%	0.50%	0.10%
Over $5,000,000	Negotiable	Negotiable	Negotiable

- Minimum annual account fee: $450
- Minimum investment: $100,000 (depending on Sub-Manager selection, some minimums may be higher)

For example, a client with $500,000 of investable assets in an equity-based portfolio strategy would be charged as follows:

First $250,000 x 1.00% = $2,500, next $250,000 x 0.85% = $2,125 for a total annual fee of $4,625 (not inclusive of financial advisor's fee)

Multi-Manager Accounts

Account Size	Annual Fee: Moderate Portfolios	Annual Fee: Moderate Growth	Annual Fee: Growth	Annual Fee: Aggressive Growth
First $500,000	0.80%	0.85%	0.90%	0.95%
$500,001-$1,000,000	0.65%	0.70%	0.75%	0.80%
$1,000,001-$2,000,000	0.55%	0.60%	0.65%	0.70%
Over $2,000,000	0.50%	0.55%	0.60%	0.65%

- Minimum annual account fee: $300
- Fee includes individual money manager, overlay strategy, platform services, etc.
- Minimum investment: $250,000

Asset Allocation Programs

Account Size	Annual Fee: PMC Select Mutual Fund* 	Annual Fee: Tactical ETF	Annual Fee: PMC ETF	Annual Fee: SIGMA Mutual Fund
First $250,000	0.00%	0.60%-0.70%	0.40%	0.30%
$250,001-$500,000	0.00%	0.60%-0.70%	0.35%	0.28%
$500,001-$1,000,000	0.00%	0.50%-0.60%	0.30%	0.26%
$1,000,001-$2,000,000	0.00%	0.50%-0.60%	0.25%	0.22%
Over $2,000,000	0.00%	0.45%-0.55%	0.20%	0.20%
Minimum Annual Account Fee	$0	$0	$125	$200
Minimum Investment	$50,000	$100,000	$50,000	$50,000

* Platform fee paid out of internal expense ratios of the underlying PMC funds

 All no-transaction-fee funds, therefore no custody fee applies

Advisor as Portfolio Manager

Account Size	Annual Fee
First $250,000	0.30%
$250,001-$500,000	0.25%
$500,001-$1,000,000	0.15%
$1,000,001-$2,000,000	0.13%
Over $2,000,000	0.12%

- Minimum annual account fee: $125
- Fee includes Envestnet platform services as well as TD AMERITRADE clearing and custody
- Minimum investment: $25,000

PMC Ultra Short-Term Fixed Income Portfolio

Account Size	Annual Fee
Any	0.18%

- Minimum annual account fee: $50
- Minimum investment: $25,000
- All no-transaction-fee funds, therefore no custody fee applies

Reporting Only Service Fees

Reporting only allows for comprehensive reporting on assets held in accounts not managed by Envestnet; the services include daily data collection and reconciliation of account data, daily web-views, quarterly performance reporting, and billing.

Account Size	Annual Fee
First $1,000,000	0.05%
Over $1,000,000	0.02%

- Minimum annual account fee: $200
- Maximum annual account fee: $800
- Manual entry of cost basis data at setup = $1 per tax lot
- Manual entry of historical data = $100/hour

Other Issues Relating to Fees

The cost of investment advisory services provided through MAP may be more or less than the cost of purchasing similar services separately. Among the factors impacting the relative cost of the program to a particular Program Client are the size of the account; the type of account (i.e., equity or fixed-income); the amount of the assets devoted to a particular strategy; and the Sub-Managers selected. The minimum account size is $100,000.

In some cases, independent investment advisors who recommend MAP to their Program Clients may receive services from TD AMERITRADE as a result of their Program Clients' participation in MAP. These services may be more than what the independent investment advisor would receive if the Program Client participated in other programs or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage and other services. Such individuals may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend MAP over other programs or services. However, MAP fees have not been increased to cover fees paid to those independent investment advisors.

The MAP fee does not cover, and the Program Client will be additionally responsible and charged for: (i) commissions, markups, markdowns, spreads and other transactional charges on securities transactions effected through or with brokers and dealers other than TD AMERITRADE; (ii) interest on debit account balances, where applicable; (iii) the entire public offering price (including underwriting commissions or discounts) on securities purchased from an underwriter or dealer (including TD AMERITRADE) involved in a distribution of securities; (iv) markups, markdowns and bid-ask spreads; (v) odd lot differentials; (vi) exchange fees, transfer taxes and other fees required by law; (vii) Individual Retirement Account fees, qualified retirement plan account fees and other account maintenance fees; and (viii) other fees that may be assessed by TD AMERITRADE in its capacity as broker and custodian upon notice to the Program Client.

Termination

The TD AMERITRADE Managed Assets Program Client Agreement may be terminated by the Program Client within five business days of the later of the independent investment advisor's, Sponsor's or Envestnet's acceptance by giving written notice of such cancellation to the independent investment advisor. In such event, any MAP fees paid by the Program Client shall be refunded to the Program Client, but the Program Client shall be responsible for any transactions executed prior to the independent investment advisor's receipt of the written cancellation notice. Thereafter, either party may cancel the agreement at any time, for any reason, upon receipt of 30-days prior written notice. Program Clients will receive a pro-rated refund of any prepaid quarterly MAP fee, based upon the number of days remaining in the quarter after the termination date. Program Clients will be charged a $500 liquidation fee per account for accounts that are terminated for which the Program Client instructs securities to be liquidated and/or cash to be delivered. Program Clients are not charged a liquidation fee if securities are to be delivered in-kind.

Types of Investments

Envestnet selects and monitors the investment managers that make investment decisions. Through MAP, Envestnet evaluates Sub-Managers specializing in each of the asset categories listed, including: equities (both domestic and foreign); corporate debt; commercial paper; Certificates of Deposit; municipal securities; mutual funds; government securities; options; and futures. Envestnet will recommend an asset allocation (and Sub-Managers within an asset category) based upon the Program Client's needs and objectives. In some cases, Sub-Managers will supply Envestnet with a model portfolio, and Envestnet will invest Program Client assets accordingly.

Methods of Analysis, Sources of Information and Investment Strategies

TD AMERITRADE relies upon Envestnet for analysis and information, recommended asset allocation strategies, and the identification, selection and monitoring of Sub-Managers (see above). As part of Envestnet's proprietary internal research process, databases of independent sources are used. Envestnet's Sub-Manager screening process considers, among other things, investment philosophy, style category, historical performance and historical risk/reward relationships.

Envestnet develops asset allocation strategies that best suit the Program Client's needs and objectives based on financial and demographic information provided by the Program Client on the Client Profile. In formulating these strategies and recommendations, Envestnet uses proprietary analytical methodologies and commercially available optimization software. Factors used in the asset allocation process include historical rates of risk and return on various asset classes, correlation across asset classes and risk premiums.

The investment professionals at the investment management firms are a primary source of information to Envestnet, providing quantitative and qualitative information. In addition, Envestnet employs several publicly available databases from independent sources, including PSN Investment Manager Database, the Mobius M-Search database and the Morningstar® Principia® application. These databases are used to verify the information provided by the Sub-Managers.

Education and Business Standards

TD AMERITRADE representatives generally have a college degree or its equivalent, a FINRA General Securities Representative (Series 7) qualification and a Series 63, 65 or 66 qualification where required.

Participation or Interest in Client Transactions

As a broker/dealer, TD AMERITRADE may receive certain fees and commissions, including a share of commissions for effecting client transactions. Any such fees or commissions are part of, not in addition to, the single flat fee paid by the Program Client in advisory accounts except that the MAP fee does not cover, and the Program Client will be additionally responsible and charged for: (i) commissions, markups, markdowns, spreads and other transactional charges on securities transactions effected through or with brokers and dealers other than TD AMERITRADE; (ii) interest on debit account balances, where applicable; (iii) the entire public offering price (including underwriting commissions or discounts) on securities purchased from an underwriter or dealer (including TD AMERITRADE) involved in a distribution of securities; (iv) markups, markdowns and bid-ask spreads; (v) odd lot differentials; (vi) exchange fees, transfer taxes and other fees required by law; (vii) Individual Retirement Account fees, qualified retirement plan account fees and other account maintenance fees; and (viii) other fees that may be assessed by TD AMERITRADE in its capacity as broker and custodian upon notice to the Program Client. TD AMERITRADE may also receive trailing commissions from mutual funds for purchases of mutual fund shares by Program Clients.

In the event that TD AMERITRADE sells a security to or buys a security from a Program Client from its inventory accounts and the market price of the security has changed while the security was held by TD AMERITRADE or the Program Client, TD AMERITRADE will use all reasonable efforts to assure that the Program Client obtains the best net price and execution on the purchase or sale based on prevailing inter-dealer market prices. In some circumstances, the change in market price may result in a financial benefit to TD AMERITRADE.

Each Program Client of MAP pays a fee that covers, among other services and costs, most transactional charges relating to securities trades effected with or through TD AMERITRADE. From TD AMERITRADE's perspective, depending on the fee level and the portfolio turnover rate in a MAP account, the bundled compensation arrangement under MAP may provide more total compensation to TD AMERITRADE than the combined compensation from the Program Client in an unbundled arrangement (that is, if TD AMERITRADE were paid separately for investment advisory services, brokerage, reports and other services). Therefore, TD AMERITRADE might have a financial incentive to recommend MAP over other suitable services and programs or to effect fewer portfolio transactions than it would effect under an alternative fee arrangement. Further, although TD AMERITRADE is required to compare its own trading and execution capabilities with that of other brokers and dealers, the fee arrangement under MAP may create an incentive for TD AMERITRADE to refrain from searching as actively among other securities brokers and dealers for best execution. In addition, fees charged by independent investment advisors are not included in the MAP fee. These fees are negotiated separately between the investment advisor and its Program Client. The independent investment advisor may arrange to have Envestnet collect these fees when it collects the MAP fee, and Envestnet will remit such fees to the independent investment advisor.

The services the independent investment advisor receives when its Program Client participates in MAP may be more than what the independent investment advisor would receive if the Program Client participated in other programs or paid separately for investment advice, brokerage and other services. Such individuals may therefore have a financial incentive to recommend MAP over other programs or services.

For additional information on Conflicts of Interest and Additional Compensation your independent investment advisor may receive, see CONFLICTS OF INTEREST on Page 6.

Conditions for Managing Accounts

The firm's Program Clients include individuals, pension and profit-sharing plans, trusts, estates, corporations and other business entities. TD AMERITRADE typically imposes a minimum account size of $100,000 for individually managed accounts in MAP. The Program Client's independent investment advisor must participate in MAP, and the Program Client must choose TD AMERITRADE as the custodian and broker for the assets.

Review of Accounts

Reviews/Reviewers: Envestnet provides a periodic statement, no less than quarterly, to all independent investment advisors participating in MAP. Independent investment advisors are responsible for providing these statements to the Program Client and reviewing them with the Program Client at least quarterly and as market conditions warrant.

Nature and Frequency of Regular Reports to Clients: Program Clients will receive periodic statements, no less than quarterly, from TD AMERITRADE providing a detailed list of holdings with valuations and account activity as well as confirmations of all securities transactions from the clearing firm. In addition, the Program Client will receive a quarterly statement from its independent investment advisor showing the allocation of the assets in the account as well as the performance of the account during the quarter.

Investment or Brokerage Discretion

Program Clients who participate in TD AMERITRADE's Premier or Premier*Plus* Managed Assets Program are required to grant full discretionary investment authority to Envestnet to determine the securities to be bought or sold and the amount of securities to be bought or sold. However, Envestnet will generally only use this grant of discretion to replace Sub-Managers when it deems such change to be necessary; to rebalance a Program Client's account as agreed between the investment advisor and/or Program Client and Envestnet; and to liquidate sufficient assets to pay the MAP fee when necessary and advisable. However, there may be situations in which Envestnet will fully utilize this grant of discretion (for example, to liquidate a specific holding, or holdings, in a Program Client's account).

Pursuant to the TD AMERITRADE Managed Assets Program Client Agreement, the Program Client authorizes Envestnet to designate TD AMERITRADE as the broker of Program Client's choice ("Broker") to provide trade execution services. TD AMERITRADE and its affiliated clearing firm TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. are also appointed to serve as custodian of the Program Client's assets. Services provided by TD AMERITRADE and TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. in this capacity are provided pursuant to a separate agreement between the Program Client and TD AMERITRADE. TD AMERITRADE directs all retail client equity and options orders to TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. directs TD AMERITRADE's orders to various venues, including exchanges, markets, dealers and its affiliate TD Options LLC, for execution. TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. may receive payment for directing TD AMERITRADE's order flow to these venues. TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. provides quarterly reports that present a general overview of its routing practices on TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc.'s Web site at www.tdameritrade.com/forms/CLR2054.pdf. TD AMERITRADE benefits from these arrangements indirectly, through its affiliation with TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. In addition, fixed-income transactions may be directed to TD AMERITRADE for execution on an agency or principal basis.

Sub-Managers will have the authority to effect transactions with or through another broker, dealer or bank if the Program Client's investment advisor or Sub-Manager believes that "best execution" of transaction may be obtained through such other broker, dealer or bank, including any broker/dealer that is affiliated with the investment advisor, Sponsor or Sub-Manager. The Sub-Manager is not required to solicit competitive bids for each transaction or to seek the lowest available commission cost for the account in circumstances where it: (i) reasonably believes that TD AMERITRADE Clearing, Inc. can be expected to obtain a "best execution" market price on the particular transaction; and (ii) determines in good faith that the commission cost is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services (as defined in Section 28(e)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) provided to the Sub-Manager. Although TD AMERITRADE will use all reasonable efforts to assure that the Program Client obtains best execution, by directing brokerage to TD AMERITRADE, the Program Client may not necessarily receive best execution on each transaction. There is no separate charge to Program Clients for trade execution and clearing services for orders placed with TD AMERITRADE, although the net purchase price to Program Clients may include markups and markdowns paid to market makers, including TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates, and dealer spreads for offerings of securities.

Not all investment advisors require their clients to direct brokerage, although wrap programs such as the programs offered by Envestnet typically do require directed brokerage. Sub-Managers may aggregate Program Client trades with their own trades or trades for other clients. See each Sub-Manager's Form ADV for any policies they may have regarding aggregation of trades and whether research is used to service all of the applicant's accounts or just those accounts paying for it.

TD AMERITRADE Institutional
4075 Sorrento Valley Blvd., Suite A
San Diego, CA 92121

TDAI 4230 D Rev. 11/09

Account # _____

Account # _____

AdvisorDirect Rep Code _____

File # _____

(for internal use only)

Dear Client:

AdvisorDirect is a national referral service for TD AMERITRADE, Inc. ("TD AMERITRADE") retail clients, prospective clients and other investors who wish to engage the services of an independent investment advisory firm. TD AMERITRADE is a wholly owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation. TD AMERITRADE and _____ ("Advisor") are required to provide you with certain information regarding AdvisorDirect, and your Advisor is required to obtain your written acknowledgement of receipt of this information.

By signing this Disclosure and Acknowledgement Form, you hereby acknowledge and agree:

- The Advisor is a registered investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or is a financial institution not required to register with the SEC and is registered with a state regulatory authority if applicable and/or is subject to oversight by state regulatory authorities.
- The Advisor and TD AMERITRADE are unaffiliated and independent of each other and have neither an agency nor employment relationship. Therefore, the Advisor has no authority to act for or obligate TD AMERITRADE or to make any representations on TD AMERITRADE's behalf.
- TD AMERITRADE is registered with the SEC as a broker/dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and as an investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. TD AMERITRADE may be acting as an investment advisor when referring Advisors to you. However, once you have hired the Advisor to manage your assets or to provide you with financial planning services, it is your responsibility to monitor the Advisor's performance. TD AMERITRADE is not responsible for selecting your investments, for the performance of your investments or for monitoring the performance of your investments. TD AMERITRADE has no discretionary authority or control with respect to your assets under management with the Advisor and will only effect securities transactions for your account that have been instructed by you or the Advisor.
- Nonetheless, pursuant to the referral agreement entered into between the Advisor and TD AMERITRADE, the Advisor may not be permitted to invest your assets in specific securities or specific classes of securities, such as privately offered securities. If you had hired the Advisor without being referred to the Advisor through TD AMERITRADE, the Advisor would not be subject to such investment restrictions with respect to your account. You may ask the Advisor whether your account will be subject to any such restrictions.
- For purposes of the AdvisorDirect program, financial planning services include an Advisor's: (i) provision of a complete financial plan that provides individuals with a long-term strategy for their financial future; (ii) provision of a plan focusing on a single financial goal or issue, such as education funding, retirement planning or estate planning; or (iii) hourly assistance on a specific financial issue or concern, such as tax strategies, insurance or business owner issues.
- You will not be charged any direct fees for any referrals, materials or assistance provided by TD AMERITRADE's Investment Consultants ("ICs") to you in connection with AdvisorDirect. However, the Advisor compensates TD AMERITRADE for AdvisorDirect referrals according to the fee structure described below. The Advisor has agreed not to charge you fees or costs higher than the fees or costs the Advisor charges its clients who are not referred through AdvisorDirect to cover TD AMERITRADE's fees or otherwise pass the fees paid to TD AMERITRADE to you.
- The Advisor and TD AMERITRADE have entered into an agreement pursuant to which the Advisor compensates TD AMERITRADE for referring you to the Advisor, if you enter into an investment advisory agreement with the Advisor or obtain financial planning services from the Advisor. Specifically, the Advisor will pay TD AMERITRADE a fee ("Solicitation Fee") which will be a percentage (not to exceed 15%) of all fees that you pay to the Advisor for advisory or financial planning services (collectively, "advisory fees"). The Advisor will also pay TD AMERITRADE the Solicitation Fee on any advisory fees it receives on any assets of any of your family members, including your spouse, children or any other family member who resides with you that you refer to the Advisor ("Family Members").
- If the Advisor is not paid its advisory fees from your TD AMERITRADE account and the Advisor has not informed TD AMERITRADE of the amount of the advisory fees it receives from you or the Advisor otherwise agrees, the Solicitation Fee is calculated as a percentage of the value of the assets in your TD AMERITRADE account. That percentage is generally 0.15% annually. Consequently, if the advisory fees the Advisor charges you are less than 1.00% annually, the Advisor may have an incentive to encourage you to authorize the deduction of your advisory fees from your TD AMERITRADE account(s).
- If at any time after hiring the Advisor you transfer your assets held in custody at TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, the Advisor will pay TD AMERITRADE a one-time fee (not to exceed 0.75%) based on all your assets under management with the Advisor instead of the Solicitation Fee ("One-Time Fee"). Similarly, if any of your Family Members that are advised by the Advisor transfer their assets held in custody at TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, the Advisor will pay to TD AMERITRADE a One-Time Fee (not to exceed 0.75%) based on all of your Family Members' assets under management with the Advisor instead of the Solicitation Fee.
- If, without the suggestion or encouragement of the Advisor, you or a Family Member independently requests to move assets from TD AMERITRADE to another financial institution, the Advisor will not be required to pay the One-Time Fee on the value of the moved account's assets although the Advisor may be required to continue to pay the Solicitation Fees as described above. To qualify for this exemption from the One-Time Fee, the Advisor must be able to reasonably establish that you or your Family Member independently requested that such assets be moved to another financial institution.
- The Advisor may have an incentive to encourage you to hold your assets under management in custody at TD AMERITRADE rather than another financial institution, which is likely to result in TD AMERITRADE receiving compensation for securities transactions effected for your account. TD AMERITRADE's fees for effecting securities transactions in your account are in addition to the fees paid by your Advisor to TD AMERITRADE for participation in AdvisorDirect.
- The Advisor has agreed to pay TD AMERITRADE the greater of $10,000 per calendar year for participation in AdvisorDirect ("Minimum Participation Fee") or the aggregate of all Solicitation Fees the Advisor pays TD AMERITRADE during the calendar year. TD AMERITRADE is entitled to its referral fees whether or not you pay your management fees to the Advisor.
- If the referral agreement entered into between the Advisor and TD AMERITRADE is terminated, the Minimum Participation Fee described above will no longer apply. However, all other fees described above will continue to apply to your assets and your Family Members' assets that continue to receive advisory or financial planning services from Advisor.
- In certain instances, TD AMERITRADE may waive or reduce fees paid by the Advisor. TD AMERITRADE may waive or reduce these fees based on, among other things, the amount of the Advisor's clients' assets held in custody with TD AMERITRADE and the securities trading activity of the Advisor's clients that are not referred to the Advisor through AdvisorDirect. Consequently, in order to obtain fee waivers or reductions from TD AMERITRADE, the Advisor may have an incentive to recommend to you that the assets under management by the Advisor be held in custody with TD AMERITRADE and to place transactions for your accounts with TD AMERITRADE. You may request from the Advisor additional information regarding your Advisor's fee arrangement with TD AMERITRADE.

- It is highly likely that the Advisor will use TD AMERITRADE to effect your securities transactions, which will generate brokerage commissions and other revenues for TD AMERITRADE and its affiliates in connection with your trading activity. You may direct the Advisor to use any brokerage firm of your choice. TD AMERITRADE may charge you a fee for clearance and settlement of any trade executed through a different brokerage firm, which is held in custody by TD AMERITRADE.
- You understand the fees are paid directly to TD AMERITRADE by the Advisor and that those fees are separate from the fees you may pay TD AMERITRADE for servicing your account.
- A TD AMERITRADE IC will also be compensated if you enter into an investment advisory agreement with the Advisor or obtain financial planning services from the Advisor. TD AMERITRADE Branch Office ICs' compensation consists of a salary component and an incentive bonus component. In addition to the regular salary and incentive bonus components, TD AMERITRADE ICs receive additional compensation for referring client assets to Advisors. If you decide to hire the Advisor based upon the referral of an IC, the IC receives incentive compensation from $70 for advised accounts of $25,000 or more to up to $5,000 for advised accounts of $6 million or more. Furthermore, during certain times, TD AMERITRADE may run sales contests where ICs may receive trips, gifts, meals, tickets or other entertainment for successfully referring you to the Advisor. This incentive opportunity may result in supplemental cash payments. In addition, Branch Office managers receive bonuses if the ICs in their office make successful referrals to AdvisorDirect. Consequently, ICs and Branch Office managers have incentives to encourage you to hire the Advisor, and because of those incentives, they may recommend that you hire the Advisor instead of choosing other investment options for your assets.
- Pursuant to your agreement, the Advisor has agreed to disclose to TD AMERITRADE, upon TD AMERITRADE's request, the amount of your assets receiving the Advisor's advisory or financial planning services that are held in custody with another financial institution. This information may be necessary to TD AMERITRADE to properly calculate the fees that the Advisor owes TD AMERITRADE. This information would not otherwise be disclosed to TD AMERITRADE. You understand and agree that the Advisor may disclose on a regular basis the entire amount of assets you have under management with the Advisor regardless of where those assets are held in custody.
- You have received, carefully read and evaluated the following documents: (i) this Disclosure and Acknowledgement Form; (ii) the TD AMERITRADE Disclosure Document; and (iii) the Advisor's Part II of its Form ADV or equivalent disclosure brochure. You understand the terms of the preceding documents and have been given the opportunity to ask questions and receive answers regarding the information contained within each document. You agree to be subject to the terms of the preceding documents.

X

Client's Signature

Name (Print)

Date

X

Client's Signature

Name (Print)

Date

TD AMERITRADE Institutional
4075 Sorrento Valley Blvd., Suite A
San Diego, CA 92121

TDAI 4230 D Rev. 11/09