Orion Capital Management, Inc. Approved as Sub-Adviser to the Monetta Intermediate Bond Fund

WHEATON, IL- June 5, 2009-Monetta Financial Services, Inc., the investment adviser to the Monetta Trust announced that the Board of Directors and shareholders have approved Orion Capital Management, Inc., as the sub-adviser to the Monetta Intermediate Bond Fund (NASDAQ: MIBFX), commencing June 1, 2009. The Fund's name has been changed to the Orion/Monetta Intermediate Bond Fund, employing a principal investment strategy of a diversified, intermediate term, high quality, investment grade portfolio, emphasizing current income.

George M. Palmer Jr., Executive Vice President of Orion Capital Management, Inc., will be the lead portfolio manager for the Fund. Mr. Palmer's background includes over 33 years of fixed-income investment experience, serving the needs of institutional and high net worth clients.

"We are delighted with the approval of Orion Capital Management, Inc. as the sub-adviser to the Intermediate Bond Fund and, specifically, with Mr. Palmer's fixed-income expertise to manage the Fund," says Robert S. Bacarella Monetta President. "Our primary goal is to create a "Best in Class" family of funds which now includes the Orion Capital Management Team."

Individual investors, wrap programs and variable annuities investors are now able to access this no-load, high quality investment portfolio, managed by Orion Capital Management, Inc.

"Our role as the sub-adviser is to invest primarily in high quality, intermediate term issues that should potentially provide an income stream needed to support a desired lifestyle," says George Palmer, portfolio manager. "Our objective is not only to seek an above-average total return but, in addition, to enable a client to potentially earn a consistent income return with a predominantly short duration portfolio to help maintain principal stability."

The Monetta Intermediate Bond Fund was launched in 1993, as a series of the Monetta Trust and currently includes the Monetta Young Investor Fund (NASDAQ: MYIFX), Monetta Mid-Cap Equity Fund (NASDAQ: MMCEX) and Monetta Government Money Market Fund (NASDAQ: MONXX).
